She was raised in Baltimore, and attended Baltimore City Schools. She worked as a custodian for the State Office building. She married the late Selvesta White. Aunt Hilda was a joy to be around. Aunt Hilda was very independent, she lived on her own for fifteen years, in the Bon Secure Senior Citizen. Her neighbors enjoyed her company. She had a very special and devoted friend Ms. Carrie. Ms. Carrie would often visit, and make sure Aunt Hilda had hot meals, she would even take her downstairs to tenant meetings and programs. Aunt Hilda had another dear friend Mr. Johnny. Mr. Johnny would call at least twice a week to check on her. Aunt Hilda touched and inspired so many people. She leaves to cherish her fond memories: six nieces, Dolores Parker, Patricia Parker, Dale Griffin, Barbara McKinney, Joann Snead and Tammy Snead; three nephews, Calvin Parker, David Snead and Eric Snead; three nephews-in-law, Robert Wilson, Zack Newsome, William Taleferro and two devoted friends Ms. Carrie and Mr. Johnny, and a host of friends and family.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences on the passing of Aunt Hilda. I am sure that she was truly loved and will be sincerely missed. The Bible strengthens us in our times of need. Please look to such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8,9; John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4 to comfort you. There are a host of other scriptures that I could share with you but time will not permit me. So please read the ones I have shared with you and draw the comfort that you need from them.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I am sorry you had to experience the loss of a dear loved one. However, the Bible assures us at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you find comfort from the holy scriptures, family, and friends.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##
