

Hildred Watts

December 1, 1934 - May 7, 2014

HILDRED LEONARD WATTS SR. was born December 1, 1934 to the late Joseph and Ethel Watts in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the youngest of three children born to his mother and father.

Hildred received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At the age of 22, he wed Audrey A. Watts, and out of this union seven children were born.

Hildred was a responsible man, who consistently demonstrated a life of independence. He held firm to his commitments and always handled his business. This reputation followed him in both his personal and professional affairs. As a dedicated employee of the Schmidt Bakery and Pimlico Race Track in Baltimore, Hildred was highly respected by his co-workers and partners. He established many life-long friendships during his time there. Hildred held an invaluable work ethic that was highly applauded.

For those of us who know him well, we know that Hildred was a stern, no nonsense man who possessed a great deal of common sense, a trait that he passed down to his children. He was a firm believer in discipline and offered tough love to his children which he groomed them into the adults they are today.

Hildred enjoyed the finer things in life. He was always well presented and took great care of himself. In addition to working hard, he also enjoyed his leisure time. In his moments of relaxation, he could be found at home listening to jazz music which he loved.

Hildred was known around town as "Sonny Watts" the man, the hardworker, the well dressed, the mentor; to know him and respect him was to befriend him, and to befriend him was to hold on to his memory forever.

He leaves to mourn: his seven children, Terry Coles, Gail Watts, Hildred Watts Jr., Kim Watts, Monica Watts, La-Vett Watts-Gibson and Adrienne White; eight grandchildren, Reno, Tiffeny, Jamal, Corey, Sophia, Shanea, Casey and Briana; four great-grandchildren, Reno Jr., Taylor, Johnathan and Drew; three sons-in-law, one daughter-in-law and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ To the Family of Hildred Watts:

After reading about the death of your family member I wanted to write to say how sorry I was to read of it. I wanted to share some words of comfort that help me when I lose someone I love. The bible gives us such loving help. It says at Isaiah 25:8 that 'God will swallow up death forever'. Then it says at Revelation 21:4 'there will be no more sickness, death or pain'. So we can look to the future with hope. Learning about the true God and obeying him means our life.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The watts Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us that our dear loved ones of the hope of a resurrection to a restored beautiful earth. He also promises us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
