

Horace Brown

March 26, 1939 - November 26, 2009

Deacon Horace "Boolum," Brown, 70, of Richmond, Virginia, departed this life on Thursday, November 26, 2009. He was born March 26, 1939 the only child to Margaret Brown and James Edward Johnson. He was preceded in death by his wife, Joyce Brown. He attended the Richmond Public Schools system. He later moved to New York to live with his relatives. Horace was a member of Mountain Top Church in Richmond, Virginia where he served on the deacon board. He was a faithful member and loved his family and the Lord. Since then he has walked and lived his life through the Lord. He had an extensive knowledge of the Bible and lived his life as such. He was a very nice, kind and giving person that would do anything for you. We've lost the irreplaceable center of our family and joyous light in our lives, but the inspiration of his faith and perseverance will live on in our hearts forever. He will be missed greatly by his family and everyone who knew her. He leaves to cherish his loving memory, one aunt, Annie Brown; a devoted cousin, Edna Brown; a host of other relatives and friends. Miss Me But Let Me Go When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want to rites in a gloom-filled room Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little-but not too long And not with your head bowed low Remember the love that we once shared Miss me-but let me go For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all part of the Master's plan A step on the road to home When you are lonely and sick of heart Go to the friends we know And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds Miss me, but let me go.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ *Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and hope from this wonderful promise found in the Bible and may you draw closer to Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.
