

Horace Edwards

January 9, 1922 - July 6, 2006

HORACE EDWARDS, son of the late Graydson and Laura Edwards, was born on January 9, 1922 in Trenton, New Jersey, but was raised in Baltimore City. He departed this life on July 6, 2006 after a lengthy illness. For many years Horace worked for Carling Brewing Company, driving and delivering on big trucks all over Baltimore City. He married Helen Smith, and they were married for sixty-three years until his passing. May the Lord have mercy on her during her continuous illness. Horace made numerous friends wherever he went, but he never met God Almighty. He was a true friend and a devoted husband. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Helen Edwards; aunt, Alverta Anderson; a host of cousins and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. May you be comforted as you reflect on the promises of the resurrection. Isa 26:19 says, "...your dead ones will live ...they will rise up." Jesus also demonstrated the power of the resurrection with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. Knowing this about Almighty God gives us comfort and it shows how much he truly cares about us.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
