

HORACE HERBERT

November 8, 1962 - June 4, 2020

Horace Andrew Herbert Jr., son of the late Barbara Ann and Horace Andrew Herbert Sr., was born November 18, 1962 in Baltimore, MD. He suddenly departed this life on Thursday, June 4, 2020 after a brief illness.

Horace was affectionately known as "Steepo" by his family and friends. He was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools where he attended Lake Clifton High School. Steepo was reared with strong family values and a rich Christian foundation from his grandparents, the late Carol and Charlie Herbert. He was baptized at an early age at the First Apostolic Faith Church.

Steepo was trained by his grandfather to be an auto Mechanic. He developed a strong passion for cars at an early age. It was remarkable how Steepo could diagnose and repair any car problem with ease. He worked at several car dealerships including Jerry's Chevrolet, Jerry's Toyota, and Koon's Ford. Steepo took great pride in detailing cars at Pop's Car Wash on Federal Street and Edison Highway. He also worked for International Cooperation Mortganti at Aberdeen Proving Grounds. Most recently, Steepo worked at the Food Depot as the seafood manager. He was a master at many tasks and was always called by his family members and friends to assist with handyman projects.

Steepo was kind, he had an infectious smile and compassionate spirit. Even as he faced many challenges in life, he remained steadfast and strong. Steepo loved his family. He was very proud of his children and grandchildren. He took pleasure in talking about them. He would not hesitate to help his family with whatever they needed. Steepo would always say "I Love You!" every time he was around his family members. He was devoted to assisting his mother Barbara Ann and his Aunt Chris with their health concerns. Steepo's favorite hobby was dogs, especially pit bulls aka "bullies" and riding his bike all around town.

Horace Andrew Herbert Jr. "Steepo" was preceded in death by his parents Horace Sr. and Barbara Ann, his brother Charles "Inky" Herbert, and his sister Barbara "Suzie" Fing. He is survived by three sons, D'Aires Pullum, Eric Herbert Sr., Steven Thompson two daughters, Seana Thompson, and Drew Herbert and two stepchildren, Rashawn Williams and Jalisa Miller; four grandchildren, Eric Herbert Jr., Ryan Herbert, Steven Thompson Jr., and Andrew Herbert; one brother, Jameel Counts; three sisters, Jacqueline Shivers, Sherri Herbert, and Alicia Redmond; a devoted cousin Durrell Booth, a devoted nephew Sug and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
