

Horace Lee Spencer

May 17, 1930 - April 23, 2012

Horace Lee Spencer quietly and peacefully went home to meet his heavenly father on Monday, May 3, 2012.

Horace was born May 17, 1930, in Sussex County, VA., to the late Robert and Margaret Spencer. He is preceded in death by his siblings: Carl Spencer, Jr., Eula Mae, James Robert, Roy, Patient and Joseph Spencer.

Horace was a faithful church member at Newbridge Baptist Church until his health declined.

He joined in wedlock, Paulette Spencer on December 28, 1969.

Horace began working at an early age on the Railroads and after moving to Richmond began work at Bon Secours, February 1, 1957 and retired on December 2, 2010.

His greatest enjoyment was his family, his work and gardening. He was a loving and giving person who would do anything to help others.

Horace's favorite song was "We've come this Far By Faith". His life is a testament of his favor song.

Fond memories of him will always be cherished by his wife, Pauette Spencer and children, Viola Huskerson (Floyd), Edith Harris (John), Catina Lane (Damond), Lateisha Spencer, Bobby Spencer, sister, Francis Moore, brother, Willie Spencer, (Gloria sister-in-law), sister-in-law, Fannie Spencer and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
