Time will never take away the memories of the times you've shared with your love one... Those memories will remain with you forever. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##*

“ I'd like to send you my sympathy, and share a word of comfort with you from the bible. Death truly strikes a family hard, and leaves a gap that can never be fully healed. God has the only remedy for death, and the only means of a permanant healing for us. First and foremost he promises a permanant end to sickness and death, which we so sorely need. At 1st Cor 15,26 he promises this: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." In line with that thought he promises at Isaiah 25,8 that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Then for all the dead in his memory he promises a ressurection back to life, according to John 5:28,29. One day if we are obedient to Jehovah, and exercise faith in his son Jesus we will see our loved ones again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn about the death of Horace. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT
