

Horatio Persaad Maragh

December 19, 1957 - October 22, 2012

Horatio Persaad Maragh, lovingly called "Tutsie" was one of fourteen children born to Babe and James Maragh on December 19, 1957 in Kingston, Jamaica. He attended Prembrook Hall School. After graduating he pursued a career as an auto mechanic, which he was very passionate about and he took pride in his career.

Shortly after, he met Marlene McIntosh and their wedded union produced their first son, Ganeish. "Tutsie" was very dedicated to his family. "Tutsie" moved his family to the United States to pursue the American Dream. Shortly after their migration to the US, they were blessed with their second son, Michael.

In the early 2000s "Tutsie" moved his family to Virginia for better prospects with the hope of opening his own auto shop. "Tutsie" gained many friends to add to his large family that already adored him. His laid back, humble and peaceful demeanor made him a person that everybody wanted in their circle. He was very self-sufficient and never wanted help even if he needed it, "Tutsie" had an undeniable and indescribable conviction, in both himself and his beliefs. He loved his culture, career, God and most of all he loved his family. He was extremely proud of his sons and always praised the men that they have become.

Sadly on the afternoon of October 22, 2012, without any warning Tutsie bade farewell to this physical world. Anyone who knows him knows his spirit, memories and essence of his soul is forever with us. He leaves behind his loving sons, Ganiesh and Michael and his precious grandson Zahir, to continue his legacy. He has left a multitude of family; brothers and best friends, Freddie and Richard, sisters and confidants Rubena, Hermine, Beverly and Ramasia and a host of nieces and nephews who will forever cherish his memory.

Some say they never got the chance to say goodbye and it's for a good reason, because there is never a need to say goodbye when a person truly never leaves your heart.

We Love You Tutsie!
