“ May you find much comfort and strength at this most difficult time. At such times words seem to be so inadequate when we lose a family member. But the words of God can be so comforting, because not only does he have the desire, but he also is the only one who has the power to restore the life force back to our loved ones. As Psalm 68:20 so wonderfully puts it: "The true God is for us a God of saving acts, and to the Sovereign Lord Jehovah belong the ways out from death." No scientist or doctor, no matter how they try can cure us from death. Only God can. Rev 21:4 says that one day he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore, because these former things will have passed away. May your hearts be comforted by his wonderful promises, and may they uplift you, and give you the strength to cope. I would like to share in depth with you how God's purposes will come about, so please contact me on my e-mail.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
