

Hortense C. Ward (Duffy)

November 19, 1943 - November 14, 2002

“The Mother of All” This beloved mother of many departed her life on November 14, 2002. She was born to the late Nellie Almer Baker Duffy and William Marvin Duffy on November 19, 1943. This Tuesday she would’ve been fifty-nine years old. She was a loved parent to most that knew her, and a helpful friend to all. Her hobby was taking care of people. She loved children. If we are honest with ourselves that is actually what all that you others and I saw in her continuously. She attended Baltimore City Community College and other city schools. She also had various occupations, which involved her main hobbies. She was a loving woman- a woman with wisdom, a woman with character, a woman with thought. She was special. She had a gift that no one ever saw, but felt so deep down in their hearts. Her name was HORTENSE WATKINS, “The Mother of all.” She is preceded in new life by: her daughter, Mrs. Dale Patricia DeLoach; and a host of brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, etc. She leaves to mourn in great deep sorrow: two sons, George Eugene Robinson, Jr. and her “baby boy: Carl Robinson, Sr.; Five most precious loved grandchildren, Mrs. Donetta Dewberry, Jonelle Samantha DeLoach, Carl Robinson, Jr., Robin Faith Sharon Hodges and her “little man”-Robert Lee Hodges, III; five great grandchildren, Kimberly Shanell Johnson, Trewawn Heard, Detre Heard, Suevenia Dewberry and Joseph Dewberry, Jr.; two sisters, Paulette Duffy and her best friend, Bernadette Audrey Carter; three brothers, Maurice Duffy, Robert Duffy and her baby brother” as she called him, Gerald Duffy; a loving son-in-law, Mr. Jonathan Reed; most importantly to her as a good friend and companion, Mr. Clearance Edward Ward; and her child, Audrey Shakina Griffin whom she raised from three months. She will sincerely be missed by all.

Tribute Wall

“ Hortense C. Ward (Duffy)

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Hortense C. Ward (Duffy)

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM