“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's Word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To family and friends: We will all miss Aunt Jean. When you recall precious memories of her-just smile. Its okay if you shed a tear or two; However, be comforted with these words (from our Lord Jesus Christ)The dead in Christ will rise first. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. 1 Th 4:18 We'll see her again!!!!!!!!!!!! Smile.##imported-begin##Tammy Gilliam##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ To the family, I hope that you recieve much comfort and strength to help you to cope. Please accept my sympathy to you all, Death is a hard thing to deal with, and we all long to see all suffering end. One day all suffering will end, because we have this assurance from our loving heavenly father who never fails to fullfill his promises. One day those who trust in God, and have real faith in his word will see their loved ones again when they come back in the ressurection. At John 5:28,29 it tells us that all those who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out. May you find much comfort as you reflect on the scriptures, and may your precious memories of Hortense help you to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
