

Hortense Carroll Thomas

April 12, 1924 - February 8, 2011

HORTENSE CARROLL THOMAS, daughter of the late Charles Earnest Carroll and Elizabeth (Robinson) Carroll, was born April 12, 1929 in Howard County, MD and departed this life on February 8, 2011 after a brief illness.

She realized her dream of becoming a registered nurse in 1984 from The Community College of Baltimore. She later accepted a position at Provident Hospital where she devoutly dedicated herself to caring for patients and people in general. She became well known in the north-west Baltimore neighborhood and was loved by many; mainly due to her straightforwardness and general concern for all. As the years passed, she positioned herself in other areas of the nursing profession such as hospice and adult day care. She worked well into her later years and finally retired in 2007. Anyone who knows her is aware that she did not give up on anyone.

She is survived by siblings. Ida May, Lenora Rosina, and Carolyn Nadine.

Preceded in her demise by siblings, George Joseph, Sedonia Elizabeth, Emily Reginia, Charles Earnest Jr., Albert Franklin, and Lorraine Celeste.

Ms. Thomas leaves to cherish her memory: six daughters and two sons, Katherine Oaks, Fred Thomas, Carol Thomas, Joan Thomas, Gina Thomas, Rita Thomas, Tamara Ilyomade, and Timothy Washington. We also cherish the memory of her late daughter, Karen Thomas. Her grandchildren total sixteen, Jason Thomas, the late Derrick Thomas, Nikki Davis, La Tonya and Robert McQueen, Jacquelyn Thomas, Alan Harrington Jr., Tia, Kevin, Keith, and Corey Harrison, Christopher, Christen, Christiana Washington, and Bridget and Paul Oakes. Her great grandchildren total eighteen (including the baby girl due in March) and one great-great- grandchild also expected in March.

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family of Hortense. May you be comforted by the beautiful memories you shared with your loved one. Keep this wonderful scripture in mind as you mourn her passing found at Isaiah 65:17 which says: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind; neither will they come up into the heart. So the memories of the sadness we all experience will be a thing of the past. Jesus said: "I have come so that they may have life and have it in abundance. May you be comforted by the wonderful promise of the resurrection. Acts 24:15
