

Houston R. Knight

March 17, 1931 - July 26, 2004

Houston R. Knight was born on March 17, 1931 in Lunenburg, Virginia to the late Raymond and Ella V. Jeter Knight. He departed this life on July 26, 2004. Houston moved to New York at a very young age where he completed his high school education. He joined the U.S. Army in July 1952 and served in the Korean War. After leaving the U.S. Army in April 1954, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland and entered the Armed Forces Reserve where he received an honorable discharge in April 1960. During this time, he worked for the Continental Can Company as an Auto Press Operator where he retired on March 15, 1980 after twenty-five years of service. He also met and fell in love with Marjorie Lee Knight. They were united in holy matrimony on May 31, 1958 and they have been married for forty-seven years. Houston was a very quiet and lovable person. He was preceded in death by his four brothers, Truman, Rainey, Cee Van and Reginald. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Marjorie Lee Knight; step-daughter, Valerie Gilchrist; son-in-law, Floyd Gilchrist, Sr.; grandson, Floyd Gilchrist, Jr.; two sisters, Muriel Rivers and June knight; including a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so bad when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am compelled by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Friends and family, I want to extend my deepest sympathy in the passing of Mr. Knight. At such a time you need comfort and our Creator gives us this comfort in his Holy Writings. In Revelation 21:3,4 he tells us that he will wipe tears from our eyes and death will be no more. So take comfort from this scripture and others such as John 5:28,29; John 11:25,26.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Although I did not know Mr. Knight Sr. I still send my deepest regards to the family. When a close loved one dies some tend to feel discomfort towards the future. However, comfort can be found in the scriptures at Isaiah 25:8 which says "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe tears for all faces." One would do well to taake these words to heart. Again, I extend my condolences to the family.##imported-begin##Brittany##imported-end##
