“ To The Family & Friends of Mr. Howard Jones, I would like to offer my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Times like these are never easy but the Bible encourages us to throw our burden on God and he will sustain us (Psalm 55:22) in our sorrow. John 5:28-29 speaks about a time when there will be a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death. Continue to lean upon the God of all comfort (1Cor1:3-5) to gain the strength needed to endure. Warmest regards, Chandra Murphy##imported-begin##Chandra Murphy##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences on the loss of Howard. I know how hard it is to lose a loved one, because my family has also lost many loved ones. It is truly the most difficult and sad thing that a family goes through, but know that this pain and sorrow was never a part of God's plan for us. His desire is that all attain to repentance, put faith in his son, Christ Jesus, and thus come in line for everlasting life. He hates death, and views it as our enemy. That is why he promises at 1st Cor 15:26 that as the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." One day soon the graves will be emptied of their dead, because God has appointed his son, Jesus, to bring the dead back to life. John 5:25-29 lets us know that all those who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice, and come back to life. May this wonderful promises bring comfort to your hearts, and may your fond memories of Howard keep you going, and help you to endure until that glorious day of salvation arrives.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
