

Howard B. Potillo

February 19, 1923 - November 18, 2001

Howard Bernard Potillo, was born on February 19, 1923, the second of ten children of the late Arthur Potillo and Gladys Jordan. Howard B. Potillo was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was a graduate of Dunbar High School; in the Class of 1943, where he was known as “Box.” He enlisted in the U.S. Army in June of 1943 and was honorably discharged in January of 1946. Howard worked for the U.S. Postal Service from which he retired in 1986. He married Catherine V. Hobbs on December 30, 1949, and together they raised five daughters. He served faithfully at Saint Gregory The Great Church, where on Thursday’s he was a “permanent fixture” in the Soup Kitchen. Family Remembrances He was frequently called by his loving wife for every little thing, “H-O-O-W-A-A-R-D!!!!” He was fondly called “My Daddy” by his daughters and “Pop Pop” by his grand and great grandchildren. Howard leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Catherine V. Potillo; four daughters, Patricia (Walter) Cain, Sandra P. Brooks, Terry (Andrew) Jones, and Maxine (Colonel) Hobbs (one daughter preceded him in death, Anita Potillo; eight grandchildren, William “Lonnie” Fuller, Aaron X. Harrison, Robin M. Brooks, Michael Cain, Tomika Jones, Noree Johnson and Ryan Cain Sr.; four great grandsons, Cyrus “C.J.” Jones Jr., Taji Harris, Ryan Cain Jr., and Khari Jones; five sisters, one brother, and a host of other relatives and friends.
