

Howard Edward Williams

December 29, 1930 - April 23, 2002

The book of life began for Howard Edward Williams, Sr., and the son of the late Richard and Edna Williams on December 29, 1930 in Berlin, Maryland on the Eastern Shore. The book of life was closed for Brother Williams on Tuesday, April 23, 2002 at 2:05 p.m. at the Baltimore VA Hospital after suffering from a brief illness. He will be deeply missed. Howard received his education in the Baltimore City School System where he graduated from Dunbar High School. At the tender age of twenty he enlisted in the U.S. Army where he faithfully served his country as a Sergeant in the 45th Infantry Division 279 Regiment 5254 from November 26, 1951 to July 8, 1954. After serving his country, he was employed at the Patapsco and Back River Railroad for many years. He excepted Christ as his savior with the blessing of Pastor Roosevelt Davenport, Sr., of the New Pilgrim Baptist Church. Howard, known by his wonderful smile, was a family man. He often talked about his wife, children and grandchildren. He enjoyed traveling; fishing and watching the Ravens play football. Most of all, he enjoyed his friends and family. He leaves to cherish his memory, a loving and devoted wife Eva Marie Williams; eleven daughters, Aletha Williams, Deloris (Bryant) Boyd; Yvonne Williams, Harriet (Ronald) Douglas, Maxine Williams, Tarsha williams, Maycie (Leonard) Harp, Mary (Steve) Akins, Clarissa Redd, Annette Akins and Makia Williams; four sons, Howard E. Williams, Jr., Julius Williams, Howard E. Williams III, and Brian Williams, one sister, Mary Taylor; mother-in-law, Martha Barnette; one sister-in-law, Betty (Larry) Faulcon; thirty-five grandchildren, a host of relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ They say Father's Day comes once a year, but having you as a father meant Father's Day was everyday. I will miss coming to your house....seeing you, talking to you and hear you say how much you want to see and spend time with your children. One thing I know, I spent as much time with you; enjoying our special moments. I love you with all my heart and you will be deeply missed. I have to say goodbye to the flesh but not goodbye to the memories. Love will always be there. I love you pops.##imported-begin##Mary E.Akins##imported-end##

“ YOU'RE GONE, BUT YET STILL HERE Oh the days when we were young, So wild, but yet carefree; We all were raised with loving care, To praise our family tree; The strength of God was in our hearts, No man that we should fear; The thought of losing you is hard, You're gone, but yet still here; The loved ones that you left behind Our feelings are the same, You look down on us from above And sad hearts call your name; I envy you, you're home with God, A place we all hold dear, We'll not forget you, Pops, You're gone, but yet still here.##imported-begin##Steven D. “ OH WHAT A WONDERFUL DAD YOU HAVE BEEN TO YOUR KIDS . you have always gave great advice and when you a great soilder deecided to move on the advice you left behind for your kids to remember "To those I love and to those who love me,When I am gone release me,let me go. I have so many things to say and do. You mustn't tie yourself to with tears; Be thankful for our beautiful years .I gave all of my family my love and you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love each of you has shown but now it's time I traveled alone. So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a time that we must part so bless the memories within your heart. I wont be far away ,for life goes on and if you need me, call and i will come. Though you can not see or touch me I'll be near, and if you listen with your heart you will hear all my love around you soft and clear. And then , when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and say welcome home". That my DAD I need to say giving good advice everyday. A heavenly soilder who's standing tall watching over all of us so we do not fall. Dad you are greatly missed and love. Your daughter Harriet.RIP!!!!!!!!###imported-begin###harriet###imported-end###
