

Howard Michael Jackson

May 22, 1953 - December 12, 2011

The Legacy

Howard “Hubcap” Jackson, 58, affectionately known as “Popa” entered into eternal life on December 12, 2011. He was born May 22, 1953 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Marion and Mattie Jackson. He was preceded in death by his brother, Timothy Jackson.

Howard attended the Richmond Public School System. He accepted Christ at a young age, but he renewed his faith and commitment to God when he was baptized at Union Level Baptist Church in 1994. His renewal of faith even further-enhanced his commitment to his family and friends. In his renewal, Howard provided words of wisdom and guidance to all those he knew.

He was a loyal and committed employee of the Richmond Public School System for 30 years as a Custodial Chief, where he eventually retired. Outside of his employment Howard was a very knowledgeable and resourceful about many things. Howard always used his knowledge and skills to help all those in need of assistance.

He was a beloved husband, son, dad, brother, nephew, friend, grandfather and great-grandfather.

He leaves to cherish his memory loving and devoted wife, Bernice Jackson; daughters, Natasha Jackson and Pamela McFarlane (Rayon); sons, Alphonso and Tyrone Taylor; 6 grandchildren, Shamika and Brianna Coleman, DeShawn Sanderson, Tynika, Javon and Tyre Taylor; 3 great-grandchildren; goddaughter, Stacey Cain; five sisters, Antoinette Hickman, Brenda Jackson, Collette Jackson, Latoya Jackson and Samantha Stokes-Bey; devoted aunts, Betty Royster and Lena Williams; loving uncle, Benjamin Arnette. Howard was loved by a host of great aunts, great uncles, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, in-laws and many dear friends, 5 devoted, Leon Sapp, Shirley Jones, Michael Kight, John Tombs and Jason Moten.
