

Howard Massenburg

August 12, 1934 - January 17, 2011

HOWARD MASSENBURG, departed this life on January 17, 2011 after a lengthy illness. He was born to Fayte Allen Massenburg in North Carolina on August 12, 1934. He attended the Baltimore City Public School System where he graduated from Carver Vocational Technical High School. He worked as a cab driver for over forty years in Baltimore City and retired from Royal Cab Company in 2006. Howard married Grace Brown on August 15, 1962 and had one daughter, Cynthia who preceded him in death.

Howard was loved by all who knew him. He was a man who placed others ahead of himself. The later years of his life was dedicated to taking care of his mother and mother-in-law. If they had a need he made sure that it was met. Howard was also very instrumental in the raising of his three grandsons; to them he was more like a father. Howard was quick to give an encouraging word and a helping hand. He enjoyed seeing others happy.

He leaves to mourn: his wife of forty-eight years of marriage, Grace Massenburg; three grandsons, Shawn Scott, Gerrod Lewis and Antonio Lewis; two granddaughters, Kecia Scott and Ciarra Lewis; three great-granddaughters, Domonique, Dikesh and A'myni; great-great-grandson, Charles; mother-in-law, Elsie Brown; aunt, Mildred St. Rose; several nieces and nephews and a host of other family members and friends. Howard will be sorely missed by many.
