

Howard Mitchell Oliver

May 21, 1946 - December 17, 2011

Howard Mitchell Oliver was born on May 21, 1946, to Mr. Henry Oliver (deceased) and Mrs. Minnie Oliver of Baltimore, Maryland. Mitchell departed this life on December 17, 2011 after a period of failing health.

He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Baltimore City College Senior high school, Mitchell began his career as an electrician at Western Electric, which later became AT&T. Mitchell always had an innate passion for exploring the intricate workings of machines and electricity. Consequently, in his community, Hoes Heights, Mitchell was affectionately known as the "Neighborhood Fix-It Man". Mitchell moved to Arizona for ten years to further his career. After returning to Baltimore in 1991, Mitchell decided to follow his ambition of becoming a tractor trailer driver. Mitchell was an active member of Enon Baptist Church as a young boy but was baptized in the Church of Christ in the early 1990's.

He married the former Wendy Wilson, and through this union two sons were born: Howard Mitchell Oliver, Jr., and Daniel Oliver. He was later joined in matrimony to Carolyn Blagman.

He leaves his memory to be cherished by: his mother, Minnie Oglesby Oliver; his sons, Howard Mitchell Oliver, Jr. and Daniel Oliver; his daughter, Carla Boyd; one sister, Wendy Dixon; one niece, Alexis Dixon; his grandchildren, and a host of other beloved family and friends.

“ My condolences to the family during this difficult time. Please take comfort from the words found at John 11:Jesus Christ promises resurrection and life to those who have died. Also comforting are the similar thoughts mentioned at john 5:28,29 and revelation 21:3,4. Please read these verses to be reminded of the comfort that only Jehovah God can give.
