“ Dear Mr. Sam, Byrd, Maurice, and Kevin On behalf of the Weaver family, I would like to offer condolences to you. We saw Howard from time to time on the bus stop and I would stop and offer him a ride. I used to go to the half way house and buy shoes and other things that Howard needed some time ago. Bu found out about his passing a day after his burial. I want you to know that Bu passed away on April 13th. We are praying for you. God bless you. Carolyn, Barbara, Johnny, Carlos, and Mike.##imported-begin##carolyn weaver green##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere sympathy. When we lose a loved one it is the most painful event in our lives. The bible even mentions the feelings of people who lived in ancient times who lost loved ones. When faithful king David lost his son Absalom 2nd Samuel 18:33 says that David was weeping as he walked on his roof, and he was saying: "My son Absalom, my son my son Absalom! "o that I might have died, I myself, instead of you, Absalom my son, my son. So from those words we can see the deep grief that David was going through, the grief families all share universally. Did God desire this pain and sorrow for us? No he didnot. He is the creator of all life and he hates death. This is why at 1st Cor 15:26 he calls death our enemy, and he promises that soon this enemy will be destroyed forever. ONe day soon the dead will come back to life, because Jehovah has given his son, Jesus, all authority to ressurect the dead. John 5:26-29 tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address so I can share with you the many blessings that God has in store for those who love him. May you be comforted by your precious memories of Howard.##imported-begin##R

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture will give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Sincerely, C. Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte

“ To The Berryman Family, I would like to convey my sincere sympathy over the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to a time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain by anymore (Rev. 21:4). Thankfully, the Bible ensures us that there is going to be a resurrection (John 5:28-29 & Acts 24:15) to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm 37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) during this difficult time. Sincerely, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly tells us that death is our "enemy", it also mentions that death itself will be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this Bible based hope.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
