

Howard L. Trice, Jr.

January 19, 1990 - June 14, 2021

Howard Lee Trice Jr, son of Howard Lee Trice Sr. and Sheila Bryson, was born on January 19, 1990 in Baltimore, Maryland. As we all have an appointed time to leave this earth, Howard departed this life unexpectedly on June 14, 2021. Howard Lee Trice Jr., affectionately known as Little Howard, HJ, or Hue puppy was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. With his love for football and sports he attended the Mergenthaler Vo-Tech High School and obtained his high school diploma in June 2008. To be all that he could be and with his zeal for making money, he went on to attend the Fortis Institute where he obtained a diploma in Medical Billing and Coding. Little Howard received Christ and was baptized at the First Mount Carmel Christian Community Church, under leadership of The Reverend Edward R. McClurkin.

At the tender age of 6 years old, you could find Little Howard always banging on the nearest table floor, or door with his drumsticks. He loved to play the drums. As he got older, he went on to play drums in his local church. If he wasn't banging on a drum, you were sure to find him somewhere provoking the saints into a praise as he sang his favorite song, Kirk Franklin's "I Can Dance Dance Dance All Night!"; and he did indeed dance all night, all morning, and all afternoon! He is sure to be somewhere right now dancing and playing his royal drums in the presence of his Savior and his grandparents Fallie, Louida, and Papa Do.

We are surely going to miss his smile that caught the attention of everyone in the room, but most of all his presence. Little Howard leaves to cherish his memory, mother Sheila Bryson, father Howard Lee Trice Sr., Bonus Mom Varshay Trice (aka Mama Shay), two sisters Ebony and Victoria, three nieces Ashiara, Moriah and Zion, one nephew Ethan, a special friend Maria Westry, her two children (Mariyarna & Keyon), Maria's mother Ms. Rosalind, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
