

Howard V. Hunt

May 1, 1925 - October 1, 2007

HOWARD V. HUNT, son of the late G. Leo and Virginia C. Hunt, departed this life on Monday, October 1, 2007 at Ellicott City Health and Rehabilitation Center. He was the third of seven children, born on May 1, 1925 and reared in the Catholic faith in his earlier years. Howard was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Howard served in the United States Coast Guard and later enlisted in the United States Navy. After serving in the military, Howard attended Air Conditioning and Refrigeration School and was licensed by the U. S. Government as a Merchant Seaman Refrigeration Engineer. Howard held numerous engineering positions including employment at the Maryland Institute College of Art and Parks Sausage Company. Howard retired from Mercantile Bankshares after many years of service as manager of Maintenance and Security. Howard enjoyed many hobbies including karate, fishing, dancing, and traveling. He especially enjoyed cruising to the Caribbean. Another one of his greatest joys was preparing large meals for family and friends. Howard later met and fell in love with Delores Hall. He became a father to her eight children and one niece. He also became grandfather, great-grandfather, and uncle. He truly loved his family. Delores preceded him in death earlier this year. Left to cherish his memory: two stepsons, Joseph and Phillip; six stepdaughters, Christine, Laraine, Vera, Joan, Karen, and Sherniece; two brothers, Donald and Martin Hunt; sister, Jackie Howard; two sisters-in-law, Marjorie and Theodora Hunt; eighteen grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I extend my heartfelt condolences to the Hunt family during this grievous time. Deaath is truly heartbreaking to any family, and so difficult to come to terms with. We all long for an end to sickness and death. That is God's wonderful purpose; to wipe the tears from our eyes, and put an end to all sorrow. Isaiah 25:8 lets us know that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Also Acts 24,15 lets us know that there will be a ressurection of the dead. May you be comforted in knowing that your loved one will live again in peaceful and secure conditions. 2nd Peter 3:13. May you find comfort in your wonderful memories.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to Mr. hunt's family and friends. The loss of a dearly loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up" according to Daniel 12:2. May your study of God's Word, the Bible, comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Greeting ! Hunt's ! I would like to send my condolences. Time is moving on, it is almost a year since your circle of life was broken. There are so many things to see and do in the near future when the resurrection time come around, John 5 :28, 11:22-44. Our creator want you all to be happy. I am looking forward to that coming. May all the 82 years of sharing and cherished times spent together keep supporting you all.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
