“ *May your heart not be trouble
Our earthly loss is always a heavenly gain Although our hearts hurt and mourn in humanly pain
The fact still remains the same
That Heaven Has Gained more Love To sprinkle down from above yes (RED) your smiles and those jokes of yours will be missed You will be missed your work is finish here walk on family Heads up hearts strong, there's nothing wrong with cherishing the sweet smelling flavors of memories.
Memories sooth our mind's taste/memory buds. Memories remind us of pleasant moments that we have downloaded into our memory bank for moments like this. "When someone we love , it seems as if time stands still. And silence... a quiet sadness... often can be felt, not just heard, a longing for one more day one more word... one more touch... GOD lets us know our love ones are always with us so family walk in peace love and light GOD is always with you family, Red will always be apart of everyone life he touch he knew in some kind of way.*

“ You have my deepest sympathies for your loss, the sting of death is most painful. It's saddening we have to lose loved ones all the time, and that's because we've inherited sin (Romans 5:12) but we've received a great gift from our God Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) that gives us a future and a hope (Romans 6:23).

To my dear friend Carrie Ann and her daughter Tera and grandchildren, Brie and Ebony. My heart breaks for you on the loss of this great man and my friend. He was a great husband, father, and grandfather. Always loved to go to their home for the big picnics. Red was such a nice and friendly person. Carrie - you know I will always be there for you any time or day.
