

Hudson Burton

May 5, 1925 - January 31, 2002

Hudson Burton, son of the late Ethel and James Burden, was born on May 5, 1925 in Bladenboro, North Carolina. He departed this life on January 31, 2002, suddenly. He received his education in the North Carolina public schools before entering into the United States Navy during the war. After serving about six years, he came to Baltimore, where he was employed with the Mass Transit Administration until his retirement after eighteen years. He also was employed with Maryland State Police Security, where he worked for sixteen years before retiring for health reasons. Hudson made numerous friends wherever he went and will be truly missed by everyone who knew him. He was a true friend and a devoted family man. His hobbies were playing golf and making music on his saxophone, trumpet and flute. He loved watching the old Buffalo Soldier movies, westerns and Navy war movies, but most of all socializing with family and friends. He leaves to mourn: Barbara; sons, Dennis Burton, Humphrey Graham and Houston Brown; one daughter, Shenna Badgett; one son-in-law, Roy Badgett; one daughter-in-law, Valerie Burton; one brother, Charles Burden of Baltimore; one sister, Lenora Johnson of Baltimore; two step sisters, Betsy Monroe and Marian Johnson both of North Carolina; two sisters-in-law, Willie Johnson of North Carolina; nine grandchildren, Devon, Demetris, Kayla, Dennis Jr., Bernard, Brandon, Brittany, Dennisha and Ronald Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Hudson Burton

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept our condolences in this time of great sorrow for you. The love you shared will help sustain you and bring you peace.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM