

Hyacinth E. Easley

November 14, 1919 - December 8, 2017

HYACINTH ELIZABETH EASLEY was born on November 14, 1919 in Matthews County, Virginia. She was the only girl of two siblings. She also was a parishioner of St. Ambrose Catholic church for many decades.

Affectionately known as "Nana", she spent her life making sure those she loved never had to do without. Whether it was her own grandkids or neighborhood kids she was always right there. Nana's devotion to education led her to become a substitute teacher. On weekends she enjoyed a few hands of pinochle with some close friends. She was known to keep up with the daily news, politics, action movies and enjoyed reading. Despite Nana battling breast cancer in her early adult life, losing two children and a husband, she continued to be that strong woman we all knew her to be.

Hyacinth was a widow to the late James K. Easley and was preceded in death by her sons, the late Carlton Smith and the late Juanez K. Easley. She was a loving mother and adoring grandmother. She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Elevert L. Smith (Geneva Smith), Juan K. Easley (Lorraine Highsmith), Joseclyn K. Easley and Ja-Nos K Easley; eight grandchildren, Eric Smith, Tiffany Jones (AnJenette Jones), Eboni Hill, Tiarra Hill, Tanaia Hill, Jakell King, Rachel Easley, and Claudette Reed; eight great-grandchildren, Eric Smith Jr., King Smith, Roman Smith, Chamicka Smith, MaCayla Mason, Isaih Purnell, James Cosby Jr., Aamera Beasley; and a host of nieces,

“ Nana where do I begin .. you are my everything my parent, best friend, role model but above all my moral compass . I am just so lost and alone without you but I know you are in a better place . You are to good for this evil world so yes I am sad , yes it hurts but when I think about you in HEAVEN with Aunty and Gramps it is comforting. I will cherish you forever and ever . So rest well Nana because you truly deserve it. I

❤️ You 😭

“ Oh nana, i don't think anyone understands how much I miss you. Ever since I was little you always made me feel ok with not fitting in. And to this day your the only family I have that has ever told me they are proud of me. You are such a huge part of the woman I am today and my life's work will be to control make you proud of me. Our family needs you and I hope we make it through this. Rest in paradise forevermore beautiful
Love Always
