

Hylettia Werrell

June 21, 1915 - September 14, 2001

“When one’s work on earth is finished, death is as natural and beautiful as the falling of the leaves of Autumn,” Hylettia E. Werrell the youngest daughter of the late Zora Ross and Harrison Ross, was born on June 21, 1915 and departed this life on Friday, September 14, 2001. Hylettia attended North Carolina Public schools and at the tender age of eighteen she came to Baltimore, Maryland where she met the late Claude L. Werrell, Sr.; at a later age they were married. From this union fifteen children were born. Surviving to share her memory are Frances Hayes, Virginia Werrell, Claude L. Werrell, Jr.; Charles Werrell, Esther Werrell, Charlene Werrell, Reginald Werrell, L.C. Werrell and Lolita Werrell. Hylettia, has one surviving sister of North Carolina, Ellen Ross and a host of nieces and nephews and a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Hylettia was a homemaker. She never worked outside her home. She loved looking after her family. A true believer in the Spirit of the Almighty, she was a living example of compassion, patience, commitment, and steadfast love. Her laughter, kindness, support and friends will always be remembered. Hylettia’s special spiritual song was “I’ve Learned How to Pray.”
