

Iantha Williams

September 8, 1921 - October 22, 2003

“For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to born, and a time to die: a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted...” (Ecclesiastes 3:1-2) Iantha Williams, daughter of the late Benjamin and Emma Williams, was born September 8, 1921, in Anne Arundel County, Maryland. She entered into eternal rest on Monday, October 22, 2003, after a lengthy illness. Iantha attended schools in Anne Arundel County and Baltimore City. She worked in a variety of occupations until she became incapacitated. Iantha was a member of Old Asbury. She moved to Delaware, and upon her return in 1963, she joined Christ United Methodist Church under the pastoral leadership of Rev. Harry Dixon. She loved her church and the pastors that served as its spiritual leaders. She participated in many of the church activities including Bible Study and the Gospel Choir. She continued her life-long joy of the Singing and Praying Band, a love she acquired as a child, from her parents. She enjoyed traveling with the Singing and Praying Band to different churches around the state as they lifted up the name of Jesus. Her unique personality made it necessary to know her and understand her wry sense of humor. Those who knew her well were aware of the fact that she could not be pushed, rushed or ordered to do anything. She would respond, “Now, wait a minute, I don’t mean no harm, but this is the way I am – you better believe that. Iantha was loved by all and will be greatly missed by her church family, relatives and friends. Iantha had one brother, Randolph, who preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn many cousins and friends, and a devoted cousin, Helen Miller, who stood by her like a sister. God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb. Suddenly she closed her eyes, and God said, "Peace be Thine." We won't say she is gone, but just away. Sleep on, Iantha, and take your rest, We all loved you, but God loved you best, Sorrowfully submitted, The Family

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the William's Family: I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It's at times like these that we look and need comfort. I pray that you rely on the "God of all Comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations"-2Corthinians 1: 3, 4).##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
