

Ida Adams

April 4, 1921 - July 16, 2015

Ida Adams, daughter of the late Leola Harion and Tucker Gary, was born in North Carolina on April 4, 1921. She entered eternal rest on July 16, 2015 after a lengthy illness.

Ida Adams moved to Baltimore, Maryland at an early age and met the love of her life, James Adams. They became the godparents of Earl Joseph Thomas. This family union made Ida heart glad and she became the ultimate wife and mother of all times.

Known for her pleasant and warm smile, she was affectionately called "Grandma Ida" by her beloved grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was also known as "Aunt Ida" by a host of nieces and nephews.

During her early years, Ida worked occasionally outside of the home but cherished the moments to maintain the home for her family. She loved to cook, dance, and listen to the 'oldies' songs from 'back in the day'. She also shared in the care of her 'Mama' (Leola) with her oldest niece Geraldine (Gary) Missouri. This would allow her mother to spend time with her extended family in East Baltimore.

Ida was a kind and considerate young lady who grew to be a motivated and spiritual woman. She will be the first to tell you how good God is and will utter a praise counting all her blessings one by one. No doubt that she is singing and dancing with the angels in heaven.

Her eyes would glisten when she saw or heard the sounds of her son, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephew, and other relatives.

She is preceded in death: parents Leola and Tucker Gary, husband James Adams, sisters Dorothy Mickles and Viola Mickles, son Earl J. Thomas, daughter-in-law Martha Thomas and great grandchild Kamari Hall. Ida leaves to cherish her memory: 9 grandchildren: Cliff, Dishae, Ashanta, Earl Jr., Ian, Maya, Shamon, Ethan, and Devontae; 4 great grandchildren: R'nyiah, Makayla, Kenneth III, and Kmya, devoted loved one Reginald Thomas, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
