

Ida Belle Hamlette

February 9, 1923 - August 22, 2006

IDA B. HAMLETTE, beloved wife of the late James E. Hamlette, and daughter of the late Hattie and Henry Williams, was born on February 9, 1923 in Tuskegee, Alabama. She departed this life on August 22, 2006 after a lengthy illness. She received her formal education in Tuskegee, and met her husband, James, while pursuing her teaching degree at Tuskegee institute. They were joined in holy matrimony on July 22, 1945. The loving couple moved to James hometown of Baltimore, Maryland. From this union, six children were born including the late Keith and Kim. She was a devoted wife and mother in addition to continuing her education and earning two Associate of Arts degrees from Catonsville Community College in Child Development and Criminal Justice. Ida was a religious, Christian woman who studied with Jehovah's Witnesses, forming many friendships within the congregation of the Winston Kingdom Hall in Baltimore City. Ida enjoyed traveling and shopping, as well as doting on her grandchildren. No one enjoyed being surprised with gifts as much as Ida, who would squeal with delight, no matter how small or large the surprise. She touched the lives of all who came in contact with her. She had a giving spirit and was always affectionate, supportive, and devoted to her family and friends. She leaves to mourn: two daughters, Edwina and Joanie; two sons, James and Dewayne; a son-in-law, Brice; a daughter-in-law, Deborah, and seven grandchildren, Berkley, Melissa, Janine, Darryl, Brandon, Bradley, Christopher, Darius, and one great grandson, Jaiden as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, I know it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Dear Joannie and Edwina, I am sorry about the loss of your mother. My thoughts and prayers are with you. It might not seem like it now but I can tell you from experience, God will help you get through and give you the peace that only He can. Hold on to His hand. If there is anything I can do, I am only a phone call away. God Bless, Joyce SSA, DCOPC, SCS NCC Bldg. Night Shift###imported-begin###JOYCE FOWLKES###imported-end###

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. No matter how long our loved one has lived it still hurts deeply when death takes them away. It won't always be this way. Acts 24:15 tells us there is going to be a resurrection. When that time comes there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:4) May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and these loving promises from the Bible.###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end###
