

Ida J. Hill

October 24, 1930 - November 8, 2021

Ida J. Hill was born on October 24, 1930 in Axon, Georgia. She was the firstborn of the late Bruce Percy Joseph and Ruth Gordan Joseph. She entered rest on November 8, 2021 at Northwest Hospital.

At an early age, Ida attended St. James A.M.E. Church in Person, Georgia. She enjoyed singing on the choir, attending Sunday School Conventions, and participating in many youth activities. After graduating from Atkinson County High School, Ida attended Morrison Brown College in Atlanta, Georgia. Years later she studied and completed her education degree from the District of Columbia Teacher's College. Ida loved teaching and worked in Washington, DC. and Cleveland Ohio Public school systems for over 35 years.

On June 6, 1965, Ida married the love of her life Horace Hill. They both resided in Warrensville Heights, Ohio where they were active members of the Sunset Drive Street Club. Ida and Horace were faithful members of Hill's Temple First Born Church of the Living God in Akron, Ohio. Ida also taught classes at the Cleveland Bible Institute. Ida enjoyed cooking, playing the piano, reading, sewing, and traveling with the Cleveland Interfaith Choir. In 2016, Ida joined Union Bethel A.M.E. Church in Randallstown, Maryland where she faithfully attended bible study and became part of the Evangelism ministry.

Ida was preceded in death by her husband Horace Hill and sisters Carolyn Battle and Brusta Lee Williams.

Ida leaved to cherish her memory: one daughter Alethea(Gregory) of Reisterstown, Maryland; two grandchildren, Breanna and Brandon; four sisters Christina Lewis, of Capitol Heights, Maryland, Marjorie (Robert) Borrero of Pearson, Georgia, Gloria Farrell of Pearson, Georgia and Barbara (Grady) Roach of Alexandria, Virginia; many nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
