“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, May God comfort you during your time of grief, 2nd Cor. 1:3,4 says of Jehovah, that he is the God of tender mercies and comfort, who comforts us during all of our tribulations. He is always there for us, ready to wipe away our tears, and one day he will completely mend our hearts when he restores the life back to our loved ones. Isaiah 25:8 tells us that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Family, we can trust in his word, because his word never fails. Isaiah 55:11. Please be comforted by his promises of a resurrection, as well as reflecting on your cherished memories.##imported-begin##R

“ Please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God "is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves." (see Psalm 34:18) Isn't this a comforting thought? please find comfort in the Bible's message.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##
