

Ida Mae Johnson

October 18, 1932 - December 1, 2002

God saw fit to call Ida Mae Johnson to her heavenly home on Sunday, December 1, 2002. On October 18, 1932 Ida Mae Johnson was born in Glyndon Maryland. She was the youngest of three children born to Thomas Hilton Johnson and Elizabeth Figgs-Johnson. She received her early education in Baltimore County and later completed her education in the Baltimore City School System. In the late 70's she earned an Associate Arts Degree in Criminal Justice from Baltimore City Community College. In her early years she attended St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Reisterstown. She later became a faithful member of Lewin Methodist Church. Ida Mae Johnson was employed by the state of Maryland for over 30 years serving in various capacities. In 1987 she retired as a Lieutenant from the Maryland State Department of Corrections. She leaves to cherish her memory, two loving daughters; Sandra Taylor and Charmaine Crawford, one sister, Dorothy Brown; on brother, Herbert Johnson; two sons-in-law, Charles Taylor and Joseph Osbourne; six grandchildren; Wayne Taylor, Anthony Taylor, Brandie Gregg, Tiffany Reid, Amber Crawford, Charmaine, Judith and Antonio Osbourne; six great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Ms. Ida was one of the few daughters that was down to earth and fun to be around. She taught me a lot about the Elks and I wish I had met her sooner. I am really going to miss her smile and laughter.##imported-begin##Dgt. Janice Corbin##imported-end##
