February 25, 1935 - March 23, 2010

MRS. IDA PATTERSON, daughter of the late Ida Jane Jones and the late Frank Jones, was born on February 25, 1935 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 23, 2010 after a lengthy illness, but she is resting in peace. She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. A hard working woman, she spent her days doing nursing, because she loved taking care of people and at night would work at a bar downtown, making those tips because she loved making money. Ida was a diva and no one could tell her different. She was "Sexy Ida," and they called her that because she would get pretty up to go to the store. She said a lady should always be pretty when walking out the door. She always kept it real and had no cut cards. She loved having fun and drinking her beer (King Cobra), and no one could ever take that from her. Most of all, she loved when family got together and had a good time. She is what kept this family together and I'm sure she wants it to stay that way. So for her, let's do it and let her rest in peace, with peace. She leaves to mourn: her three children, Andre, Frieda and Kevin; three sisters, Dora, Mamie and Elizabeth; brother, Isaac; two daughters-in-law, Tonya and Taresa; ten grandchildren, Cody, Tiffany, Moe-Moe, Lisa, Cecil, Dominick, Frenchie, Many-Man, Dougie and Mookie; sister-in-law, Ruby Patterson; a special friend, Katrina, who always made her smile when she came around; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and dear friends. Yes, she is gone but not forgotten. She is joining her other family: her late husband, Lewis Patterson; five children, Earl, Shelia, Tammy, Pumpkih and Mustard; sister, Ernestine; two brothers, Eugene and Frank; her father, Frank Jones; and of course the person that made this family, her mother Ida Jane Jones. They all are together now, so she's okay. She's still with family.

“ I am sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Please know that Jehovah God offers comfort during difficult times like these. Please find comfort in the words at Isaiah 26:19, Psalms 37:29, and Revelation 21:3,4.##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because the pain of losing someone you love can be overwhelming; I too know that pain. As you cherish fond memories that are dear to you, may you also find comfort in knowing as I have that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus 'swallow up death forever'. (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##
