

Ida Pearl Phillips

March 18, 1937 - September 6, 2003

Ida Pearl Phillips was born on March 18, 1937, in Warren County, North Carolina. She was the third of eight children born to the late Marvin T. Clanton and Rebecca Thorne-Clanton. Early Friday morning, September 6, 2003, assured by God that this phase of her work was complete, Ida peacefully exchanged her physical life on earth for life eternal at the Future Care Nursing Center in Baltimore, Maryland. Pearl, as family and friends affectionately knew her, received her early education in the public schools of Warrenton, North Carolina. At the age of 15, she moved to live with her aunt, Lillie in Baltimore, Maryland, where she continued her education in the public schools. At the age of 22, Pearl decided to make Albany, New York, her home. Upon arriving in Albany, Bernie and Jane Summer employed her to work for their family. Little did she know at the time that job would evolve into 35 years of love and dedication to Bernie and Jane, who served as a surrogate family and provided her with a "home away from home". Several years later, Pearl moved with the Summer family to Los Angeles, California. As a child in North Carolina, she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior. Her Christian experience continued under the leadership of Pastor R. Johnson at the Bethany Baptist Church in West Los Angeles where she was a dedicated and faithful member. It was here one July 29, 1978, Pearl was joined in holy matrimony to Theodore (Ted) R. Phillips, Jr. Pearl loved to travel and over the years visited many places including Seattle, Mexico, Nevada, and Florida. Although well traveled, she always looked forward to "coming home". The family will miss Pearl, but we sorrow not as those without hope, for we know that death is a sleep from which she will awaken at the glorious appearance of Jesus Christ. Pearl leaves to cherish fond memories two sisters-Shirley Goldsborough and Anna Poindexter; one brother-Jerry Clanton, all of Baltimore, Maryland; father-in-law, Theodore R. Phillips, Sr. of Los Angeles, California; one brother-in-law, James Poindexter of Baltimore, Maryland; four sisters-in-law, Tobina Clanton of Baltimore, Maryland; Louise Clanton of Washington, DC, Thelma Clanton of Albany, New York; and Shirley Phillips of Los Angeles, California; aunts, Lillie Wilson and Evelyn Thorne of Baltimore, Maryland; and Alzenia Harris of Warrenton, North Carolina; uncles, Charles Alston and Jessie Alston of Baltimore, Maryland, and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Ida Pearl Phillips. I just want to express my sympathy to the family. I also want to share some encouragement about your loved one. Death is a real enemy and it is very heartbreaking. But the Bible assures us at (I Corinthians 15:26) that death is to be brought to nothing. That same chapter, verses 21, 22 speaks of a resurrection, so there is hope of seeing your loved one again, and that will happen in God's new world. As you read your Bible, I hope it will bring some comfort to you. Sincerely yours Ruth Thomas###imported-begin##Ruth Thomas###imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.###imported-begin##sorry2 hear###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
