

Ida Bell Washington

January 18, 1928 - July 5, 2011

IDA BELL WASHINGTON, daughter of the late Lillian Foster and David White, was born on January 18, 1928, in Washington, D.C. she was the oldest of five children, one of whom preceded her, Cleo E. Sutton. God saw her struggle and said struggle no more and come on home to rest on Tuesday, July 5, 2011.

Ida was educated in the Baltimore City School System. She worked at Hold Tight Company and retired from Eastern Products.

While employed at the Hold Tight Company, Ida met her husband the late Isaac (Ike) Washington, the love of her life. In 1951 they were married and their union lasted for fifty-one wonderful years. Out of this union, three children were born. She also has a devoted loving stepson, whom she cherished as her own. During their years together, Ike and Ida traveled extensively and lived attending family gatherings.

Ida was a member of First Baptist Church when Reverend Vernon T. Williams was the pastor. She later jointed New Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, where she has served as a faithful member and a true servant of God for many years. She was a dedicated member of the Gospel Choir. She was also a member of the American Legion Auxilary Post #263 for nine years. With her loving spirit she touched many lives as she embrace those who she encountered in life.

Ida lived her family. Her children and grandchildren were most important to her and her goal was to keep her family together. She was a very strong willed person. She enjoyed going to the casinos, love playing Pinochle always stuck to her old fashioned valued and morals.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory: three sons, Anthony of Florida, Delroy and Curtis; one daughter, Jeannine Cawthorne; one daughter-in-law, Debbie Washington of Floria; one son-in-law, Larry Cawthorne; two sisters Hilda Boulden and Charlene Jennings; one brother, Chuck Swain; two sister-in-law, Sally Price of South Carolina and Linda Swian; one brother-in-law, Johnnie Price of South Carolina; ten grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren; a host of nieces and nephews, relatives and friends; and a devoted traveling companion, Ms. Louise.

“ Tanisha, sorry to hear about the lost of your grandmother. You and your family are in my prayers.

Tasha Shank - July 15, 2011 at 05:40 PM

“ *Dear Family,
Please accept my sincere condolences over the loss of your beloved Mrs. Washington.
I pray that you will be comforted by Jehovah God's promise at Revelation 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Until that time, hold fast to your memories and the hope of being reunited with your loved one again (John 5:28,29).*
