

Idell Elizabeth Duncan

May 12, 1910 - July 13, 2002

Idell E. Brown-Duncan was a true caregiver. When members of her own family or her husband's families were sick, they could always count on her to come to their aid. In her spare time, she always loved reading her bible, listening to Mahalia Jackson, or watching her afternoon soap operas in the front room (as she called it). Idell was an ideal kind of woman who had no problem expressing herself, telling "right now straight." She was a joy to be around and reminded everyone, "To just do what Jesus say do, 'cause when Jesus calls, I'm ready to go." On July 13, 2002, her Lord and Savior called Idell E. Brown-Duncan from labor to reward. She leaves to mourn and cherish her loving memory: devoted and loving daughters, Annie B. Taylor and Blanche L. Curtis; one son, George H. Bryant; one daughter-in-law, Magdalene Bryant; one loving sister, Dorothy M. Brown-Council of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; two loving brothers, Collis and Leroy Brown of North Carolina; two sisters-in-law, Catherine and Ruth Brown; twenty-one grandchildren, thirty-five great-grandchildren, forty-six great-great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and close friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
