

Imogene Reaves

November 24, 1953 - July 7, 2006

Imogene Reaves (nee Ashley), daughter of Elijah and Josephine Ashley, was born January 24, 1953, in Annapolis, Maryland. She departed this life, July 7, 2006. She was educated in the Baltimore City School System, and graduated from Eastern High School in 1971. Pam held various positions at the Raytheon Corporation for 19 ½ years. Imogene was joined briefly in matrimony to Michael Reaves, and out of this union was born Michael Reaves, her loving son. She leaves to cherish her memory: Michael Reaves (Son), Elijah Ashley (Father) of Aiken, South Carolina, Josephine Ashley (Mother), Joseph Ashley (Brother) and Lillian Ashley (Sister in law), Veronica Waters (Sister) and Carl Waters (Brother in Law), Stanley Ashley (Brother), Michael Ashley (Brother) and Veronica Ashley (Sister in Law) Kevin Ashley (Brother) and Tobias Ashley (Brother), Four nieces and two nephews and a host of relatives and friends. Pam had a friendly personality and loved life, and she lived life to the fullest in her own way. She was the tax preparer for many of her family and friends, and always had a bit of advice about any subject. Her family would like to thank all of her friends who kept them in their prayers during their misfortunate experience. Please celebrate her good times and think of her as the fun loving person she was. At the family request, a private session was held at March Funeral Home-East. She was later cremated.

Tribute Wall

“ Imogene Reaves

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I just learned of Pam's untimely passing, and would like to extend my heartfelt sympathy to her family. Although her journey became quite difficult, I still remember her sweet spirit.##imported-begin##Pamela Reaves Scriber##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Words are not always easy to come by, especially when it comes to someone passing on. It is said that God permits us to grieve, but forbids us to mourn. Aunt Pam was/is a beacon to my grandmother. A beacon of hope, love and inspiration because she has accomplished so much in such a short lifespan. But it's just so typical of an Ashley, to be full of love, full of hope and full of a special flare for life. It puts my mind at peace to know that in the end of her days that she had such a wonderful life. And I know how much she loved Granny, Scooby, and her sister and brothers. And I know how much they loved her. She was a great friend, a caring daughter, and loving mother. The last thing I want to say is, when I was young, I remember setting in Granny's living room and seeing Aunt Pam fussing over this or that, trying to make our visits better and more joyous. She was one of the most unforgettable people I've ever met. Pam was willing to pray for others, but more importantly she was willing to be an answer to so many prayers. I know that her wings are fitting perfectly. I will see you on the other side...where we ALL will be able to 'walk around Heaven all day.'##imported-begin##Nephew D##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM