

Indiana Robinson Jordan

January 6, 1937 - March 14, 2010

Indiana Robinson Jordan was born January 6, 1937 to the late Aaron Lee Robinson, Sr. and Anna Rebecca Venable Robinson. She was the youngest of six children born of this union, and reared in Richmond, Virginia. Indiana was affectionately given quite a few nicknames: Indy, Aunt Pea Eye, Peter, Sweet Pea, Mama J, G.G., Little Girl and Boo. At an early age she confessed Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior, and was baptized at Brook Road Baptist Church. Although her illness kept her away physically, she was a faithful and dedicated member of Mt. Tabor Baptist Church until her passing. Married on February 27, 1954, Indiana enjoyed 56 years of marriage to Robert Lee Jordan, Sr. Indiana and Robert shared a loving life together. Some of their happiest times were spent with their children, relatives and friends. Back in the day, before they gave their lives to the Lord, the sisters and brothers would get together and have a real good time! After committing their lives to the Lord they still got together and had a real good time in the Lord. Indiana was educated in Richmond Public Schools. She attended Maggie L. Walker High School. After school she entered the work force. She retired from Philip Morris USA. Indiana loved much and was loved by everyone. She will be remembered for her ability to always make everyone laugh and smile, for her playful ways and those beautiful dancing eyes. She lived to please others and had no respect of person. Just like the God she served, Indiana treated everyone alike. She leaves to cherish her memory her loving and devoted husband, Robert Lee Jordan, Sr.; two daughters, Dorethea Y. Nelson, Rev. Joan

A. Robertson (Rev. Lee, Sr.); one son, Robert Lee Jordan, Jr. (Ruby Smith), an adopted daughter, Johnetta "Runt" Morton (Russell); four grandchildren, James Adkins, Jr. (Chara), Shermine Jones (Timothy), Rashawna Perry and Robert LeRon Jordan; five great grandchildren; one brother, Aaron L. Robinson, Jr. (Jessie); two sisters, Queen E. Randolph (Herman) and Sylvia Mitchell (late Johnny Mitchell, Sr.); one brother-in-law, John Jordan (Mary); one uncle, Hallibee Robinson, a host of nieces, nephews and other loyal family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Indiana Robinson Jordan

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends of Ms. Jordan I wish to express my deepest sympathy. Death is something that all of us have encountered. God's inspired word the bible give us the comfort to deal with such a loss. John 5:28,29 says."Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a ressurection of life, those practiced vile things to a ressurection of judgement."##imported-begin##Kashawn Smith##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am sencerely sorry for your loss. May GOD comfort and strengthen you during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Adriene Granger##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM