

Inell Burrow

June 11, 1933 - October 21, 2007

The sun rose on June 11, 1933, and the sun set on October 21, 2007 for INELL E. BURROW. Inell was the daughter of Pourchie Layman and the late Lucious Layman. Inell received her education in Sussex County, Virginia. She received her nursing certificate in Baltimore, Maryland. Inell was an employee of City Hospital until she retired in 1994. She was a member of Divine Faith Fellowship Church. Inell had a quiet spirit about her. Everyone who met her fell in love with her personality. She was kind, nice, hardworking and loved her family. As quiet as she was, she loved a home-cooked meal. Inell loved spending time with Talia, Taylor, James and Manny. She loved spending time with them at the skating rink, going bowling and dining out. She will truly be missed by her family and friends. She was preceded in death by her brother, James Layman. She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Cordelia Burrow; son, Carl O. Burrow; four granddaughters, Talia, Kendra, Katrina and Kirsten; grandson, Carl A. Burrow; devoted great-grandchild, Taylor; daughter-in-law, Kellie; two sisters, Doris Lemon, Laura Lyde; uncle, Patrick Neverson of Petersburg, Va.; aunt, Virginia Epps of Petersburg, Va.; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, and friends; and special cousins, Roy Neverson, Helen Neverson and Juanita Raines.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort now and in the future from the promise made at John 5:28,29 and the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15. Please take a minute and read these verses with other members of your family.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
