

Inell Phillips

April 30, 1912 - January 28, 2005

Inell Phillips, daughter of the late Bud and Della Preston, was born on April 30, 1912 in Monroe, Georgia. She departed this life on January 28, 2005. She received her formal education in Atlanta, Georgia. In early 1929, she met Ben Dennis Phillips, and that August they were united in Holy Matrimony. After marrying, they moved to Chattanooga, Tennessee. In 1943, they moved to Baltimore, Maryland. In 1945 she was baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost at Bishop Showell's church. She later joined Bishop Golphin and served as an evangelist and Mother of the church until her death. In September of 1954 she and her family moved to Joppa, Maryland. Inell Phillips made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was a true friend and devoted family woman. She walked hand in hand with her husband for sixty years, until his death in 1989. She loved serving the Lord and singing His praise. Her hobbies were bible study, sewing, and gardening. She was especially fond of children. She leaves to mourn: one son, Ernest Phillips; one daughter, Antoinette Phillips; one sister, Marguerite Nellons-Mitchener; three sisters-in-law, Doris Evans, Maggie Phillips, and Doris McKnight; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
