

Inez McLaurin

May 15, 1930 - June 14, 2005

Inez McLaurin was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 15, 1930 to the late John and Lena Bell Hopkins. She fought a good fight that ended June 14, 2005, at the Union Memorial Hospital, after a lengthy illness. Inez received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She was employed in the Dietary Department at the Union Memorial Hospital for thirty-five years. She was married to Junious McLaurin of Fayetteville, North Carolina. From this union was Ronald Junious, Curtis Allen, Gwendolyn Inez, and Gregory Dennis, Sr. Inez was a lady and a true friend. She showed love, and no matter what the problem she was always there, always listening, always giving a helpful hand. She was quiet in her mannerism and her famous saying was "I can do it myself." A rose is a rose, call it Inez and it will smell the same. She loved life but most of all she loved the Lord. She was a faithful member of the Immanuel Temple A. M. E. Church, where she served on the Senior Stewardess Board. Inez leaves to mourn: her four children, Ronald Junious, Curtis Allen, Gwendolyn Inez, and Gregory Dennis, Sr.; two daughters-in-law, Jereline McLaurin and Marilyn Pinkney; one son-in-law, Leroy Davis. She also leaves: two sisters, Elizabeth T. Osborne and Lillian Marie Boyd; two special friends, Thelma Smith and Virginia Miller. She was the proud grandmother of Annette Denise, Ronald Tyrone, Kila Talise, Kyree Tamal, Natalie Lachelle, Gregory Dennis, Jr., Jamia Ann-Marie, Janice, and Joycelyn Inez; and four great grandchildren, Tyrone Donte, Perry Andre, Ebony Danielle and Kenneth, Jr. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jeuss feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave away to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection (see John 5:28,29). It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Grandma, I miss you so much. I thank God for sending you to be my Grandma. You let me know that being dark skinned was beautiful. You always said "the blacker the berry the sweeter the juice" and chocolate was your preferred flavor. Grandma you were a true grandmother to every child who came into your life. You made sure that no one went without. You made every Christmas special with the resources that you had. Your kind, out stretched hand and open heart taught me to accept everyone for who they are. Your door was always open and you never turned anyone away. Grandma, I will always cherish the time we spent together. I love you, Kila##imported-begin##Kila Macer##imported-end##

“Peace & Blessings After given considerable thought to all the years you have devoted to my well being, this has afforded me the opportunity to peer into the depths of my inner most self. I now realize that you deserve far more appreciation than I can ever extend to you. For the many years of your faithful devotions to a son, whom on many occasion's failed to even extend the simple gratitude as a hug, yet you continued to shower me with motherly love and devotion. Thank you. You not only became a mother to me, but a father as well and this in itself, showed me great strength and courage, for one young woman to be both mom and dad to her offsprings. Even through great odds of survival and struggling along, thank you. And as I further reflect upon my childhood past memories and of the many times you found cause to discipline me(a spanking for being disobedient), and the many times I thought I hated you for the spankings, but now as I look back on those childhood moments, those resentments and anger I now know that those spankings were well deserved. I now wished that you had shown me more disscipline. And as the old saying goes, Mother knows best! I love you and thank you, much more now for those moments of discipline and clarity. And as I had grown from childhood into what I believe to be manliness, I no doubt caused you even greater stress and strain, but not really realizaing tht my irrational behavior and decisions not only affected myself, but those that cared about my well being. I sincerely apologize for all the undue disruption and worry I caused you. I now realize that I have been blessed with the Best mother a son can ever have. For you are truly a precious and rare jewel that can never be replaced. I truly love you from the very essence of my being, and for the life that you have given me. I sign this letter with sincere gratitude of love and appreciation. Your loving son,##imported-begin##Curtis McLaurin##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. My family finds much comfort and solace from the Bible. The Bible assures us that the dead will live again. It tells us that such a life will take place in paradise. Please read Job 14:14,15; Luke 23:43 and Psalm 37:29. May these divinely inspired promises give you strength and peace in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I'd first like to thank everyone for their kind words and love during this time. Your support is really appreciated. Having had this exceptionally strong woman as a grandmother was one of the best things God has blessed me with. Through her I saw a strength that flowed in everyone in my family; she was always kind, mannerly and knew what she wanted. Her heart was full of nothing but love, and I'll miss her always. At least her pain is gone now. Love you Grandma.##imported-begin##Kyree McLaurin-Davis##imported-end##
