

Iola Hedgepeth

May 1, 1931 - August 2, 2004

IOLA HEDGEPEETH, daughter of the late James F. Turner and Willie Mae Turner, was born May 1, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the youngest of seven children. She departed this life to be with her Savior on August 2, 2004 after a lengthy illness. Iola completed her education at Dunbar High School, then later proceeded through Cosmetology and Nursing school. She was a devoted employee at Mercy Medical Hospital for thirty years. She was a lifetime member at First Apostolic Faith Church, where she was baptized and filled with the precious gift of the Holy Ghost under the leadership of Bishop J.M. Turpin. Iola served in many auxiliaries such as: Senior and Cooperative Usher Boards, the Junior and Social Missionary Boards. She was one of the first members of the Echoneers and she also took part in the Radio, Women's and Sanctuary Choirs. In 1958, Iola met and married Joseph Hedgepeth. From this union four children were born, Cynthia, Jacqueline, Reginald and Warren Hedgepeth. Iola, also known to relatives and friends as "Baby," was known for her pretty, fancy, and unique hats as well as her delicious carrot cakes, which everyone craved for. Her hobbies included collecting antiques, listening to and humming Gospel music. Left with very fond memories to cherish are: her husband, Joseph Hedgepeth; two daughters, Cynthia D. Hedgepeth and Jacqueline M. Hedgepeth-Hendrick; three sons, Vincent Hedgepeth, Reginald J. Hedgepeth, and Warren L. Hedgepeth; two sisters, Katherine L. Turner and Annie Mae Turner Kingsberry; seven grandchildren, De'Andre, Ta'Neakia, Branden, Reggie Jr., Terrone, Tiffany, and Shikila; a sister-in-law, two brothers-in-law, three daughters-in-law, a son-in-law; her side-kick, Max (her dog); a very close and devoted friend and neighbor, Ms. May Tyler; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. She will be greatly missed by all, but her jubilant and humble spirit will remain well and alive forever!

“ Dear Family and Friends, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. At times like this comfort is needed more than ever. Please find comfort in the scriptures. Malachi 3:16 states that Almighty God has a book of remembrance and be assured that your loved one is in that book. He also promises that when he opens that book those that are in it will be brought back to life (John 5:28,29) and will never die again. Please let these scriptures comfort you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
