

Ira Fitch

May 4, 1937 - January 6, 2002

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.” Ira Fitch, affectionately known as “Boot”, was a native of Tifton, Georgia. Born on May 4, 1937, he was the third sibling born to the late Ira Fitch Sr. and Clander Johnson-Fitch. Three siblings and two sons preceded him in death. Suddenly, on January 6, in the year of our Lord 2002, Ira Fitch slipped into the arms of his precious Savior Jesus Christ (Jesah-Hebrew name). Ira was educated in the public schools of Snow Hill, Maryland. During these school years, Ira acquired a love for gospel music. This love led him to become the lead singer of the gospel group “The Swanson’s of Snow Hill.” Ira met and married the former Emily Marie Milbourne. From this union God blessed them with five children. He brought his family to Baltimore in 1957. During his life journey, Bethlehem Steel and Baltimore City Recovery Center employed him. He had an undeniable love for people, good music-especially the oldies and gospel. He loved to laugh. He loved to laugh. He could find a joke in anything, no matter how bad the situation-he had a joke (smile). He loved to sing to and for his family and he loved his family being his audience for his jokes. He became a member of Manna Bible Baptist Church in 1986. He loved his private time with the Lord and his bible study. He had a smile that would light up a room. He leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters, Connie M. Powell of Baltimore and Diana L. Fitch of New Orleans; one son, Jerry L. Fitch of Baltimore; one son-in-law,

Charles Powell; one daughter-in-law, Pamela Fitch; eight grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives.
