

Irene Brady

June 15, 1914 - December 6, 2001

Irene Brady, daughter of the late Madison and Bertha Brown, was born on June 15, 1914 in Harrisburg, Virginia. She departed this life on Thursday, December 6, 2001. She received her education in Harrisonburg. At the age of 17, she moved to Baltimore with her family, where she worked as a lab technician for many years. She married Rudy J. Barnes and out of this union two children were born, Barbara and William. She later married the late James Wilbert Brady Sr. and out of their union two sons were born, James and Nathaniel. She was a devoted mother and grandmother as well as a devout Catholic. She loved to visit Atlantic City, and to her close family and friends she was affectionately called "the one-armed bandit." She made friends easily and was loved by all that knew her. She leaves to mourn: one daughter, C. Barbara Love; three sons, William Brown, James W. Brandy Jr., and Nathaniel Brady; two daughter-in-law, June Brown and Elaine M. Brady; two granddaughters, Ilene Love and Jewel Harris; and a host of other relatives and close friends.
