

Irene Bernadette Briscoe

June 7, 1929 - May 25, 2013

IRENE BERNADETTE BRISCOE, daughter of the late William and Hattie Briscoe, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 7, 1929. She was the seventh of seven children and was fondly recognized as the youngest child. Irene attended public schools in Baltimore until the death of her mother. She and her sister Catherine were enrolled in Saint Frances Academy. St. Frances provided opportunities for academic and spiritual involvement in those activities that were meaningful to her. When the family moved to Cherry Hill, she became a charter member of St. Veronica Roman Catholic Church. With sister Catherine, they were devoted members of the church family.

Irene was a gentle person with a love for family and friends. Most of her adult life, she devoted her time to others who needed attention. During their time of need, she took care of her father and her brother. She shared a home with her devoted sister Catherine. They had lived together since childhood and were a constant source of love and encouragement for each other. Their devotion and regard for each other, helped them to overcome adversities that they had to face in later years.

Irene will be fondly remembered by: her brother, Thomas Herman who lovingly referred to her as “his baby sister”. She will also be remembered by other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Mrs. Briscoe:

May the memories of Mrs. Briscoe help tp ease your pain of sorrow. I have also lost dear loved ones in death & I found that reflecting on Jesus words at John 5:28 & 29 brought me great comfort. Those Scriptures states, : " Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice & come out."

Jesus healed the sick & raised the dead when he was on the earth & he will do this again on a larger scale during His Kingdom Rule. We can see them again, right here on the earth but under different conditions (Psalms 37:9, 10, 11 & 29).

I hope these words can bring you a measures of comfort until the fulfillment of them.

Love,

“ My condolences go out to the family of- Ms Irene Briscoe-. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away
