“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. May you find comfort in this wonderful promise made by God, "he will wipe out every tear from eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". (Revelation 21:4)##imported-begin##A. Jackson##imported-end##

“ My condolences goes to the family and friends of Ms. Anderson, dealing with this pain can bring much discomfort but may you find hope and courage in the bible at Rev. 21:4 which show that soon death and pain will be no more. May you continue to read God's word daily.##imported-begin##Derek Farmer##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Family and friends, be assured that Miss Irene will be back in the ressurection. Almighty God has the power and the desire. Jesus Christ himself said "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" - John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15##imported-begin##Victoria##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Irene Leadbetter Anderson. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ The sting of death is always a painful time. May your family put trust in the God of comfort. Revelations 21:4 Reads; "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes,and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. This is God's promise to all of us in the very near future.##imported-begin##Y. Thompson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 9:36-41 tells of Tabitha (Dorcas) who was a loving and generous woman who shared with those around her. She died and was mourned by many. These verses tell us that she was brought back to life by by the Apostle Peter. What joy there was at her resurrection! How much more joy when the future resurrection takes place. May you receive much comfort and strength from the loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
