

Irene Porter

March 25, 1923 - November 18, 2010

IRENE PORTER, was the daughter of the late Ruth Queen and Williams Covington. She was born on March 25, 1923 in Hanover County, Virginia. She was called to be with the Lord on November 18, 2010, after a brief illness. She was preceded in death by her brother, Wilbert Lee and sister Eleanor Covington. As a young person, she migrated to Baltimore, Maryland where she decided to make her home, after receiving her education in Virginia.

Mrs. Porter spent her earlier years of employment at Lord Mott's Canning Company and later retired from Dover Poultry Company. She enjoyed her chosen line of work and worked very hard throughout her life while raising a family. Mrs. Porter often witnessed in testimony of the power of the healing of God. Years ago, she was diagnosed by doctors with a medical condition. She was prayed over, and when she went back to be examined, there was no evidence of the condition at all. She attended the Bring Them Out King Ministries Church and known as the "mother" of the church. She truly loved the Lord. What a wonderful journey to be going home for the holidays! She loved and was dearly loved and respected by her church family. She was affectionately known by all as "MaMa". She loved music and dancing. On the lighter side, her favorite meals was a kosher hot dog and a Pepsi. She would make her grandchildren walk a mile for a pepsi.

She leaves to mourn three sons: Mr. John Porter, Mr. Michael Porter and Mr.

David Mason, nine daughters; Ms Gladys Covington, Dr. Anne Collins, Ph. D., Mrs. Phyllis Glass, Ms. Jacqueline Powell and Mrs. Karen Westmoreland; one daughter-in-law, Mrs Robin Porter; three son-in-law; Mr. James Harrison, Mr. Rickey Westmoreland and Mr. Tony Glass. She leaves four generations of family members, including grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren and a host of friends. She will surely be missed by all who love and cherish her.

“ *My continual prayers are with the family. One of the things I remember about Mother Irene was seeing her walk just about every where. In my commute, I would sometimes see her, stop and ask to give her a lift to her door. She would say she's fine and would in turn, tell me to get out of my car and walk sometimes. Those of Mother Irene's generation, we just don't get them anymore. My the Peace of God dwell in your hearts.<http://storage.lifetributes.com/Gifts/Bible.png>

“ *Jackie:
I did not know your mother personally, but listening to you share conversations about her, I know that she was a beautiful person with beautiful memories to share. May she always live on in your heart, and you can share her beautiful memories and wisdom with everyone.*
