

Irene B. Woodland

March 2, 1924 - December 27, 2011

Irene Woodland was born on March 2, 1924 in Baltimore, Maryland, to the late Edward and Josephine Proctor. She was called to rest on December 27, 2011 after a long illness. God knew she was tired.

Irene was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, where she also worked and retired after many years of dedicated service.

She was married on January 15, 1953 to William "Babe" Woodland, who predeceased her on October 23, 2004.

Her spiritual journey began at an early age at First Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Later she became a member of the City Temple of Baltimore (Baptist). She was a faithful church member even though her illness would not allow her to attend physically, she was always there in spirit and regularly received communion at her home from associate ministers. She also was a member of the Women's Ministry.

After retiring, Rene or Aunt Rene, as she was affectionately called by the family, happily helped out by looking after her many nieces and nephews while their parents worked, including one great-great-nephews, Daryl, whom she sat for during most of his early school years.

Rene was a caring and loving person who enjoyed a good crab cake and a nice game of Po-Ke-No while spending time with family and friends.

She leaves to mourn: her son, Wardell Proctor; grandson, Michael “Bobby” Proctor (Rose); granddaughter, Kim Avery (Larry); sister, Hallie R. Tucker; great-granddaughter, Kayla; great-grandson, Trey; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, and many, many more relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Irene Woodland, I wish to express my condolences. I just recently loss someone in death and my heart goes out to you. No doubt you have wonderful memories of your mom, wife, sister and best friend. In the days, week, and months ahead may you find the loving support and comfort to deal with your loss. I have been personally comforted by the words found at Revelation 21:3,4. " With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May you and your family find encouragement from these inspired words.
