“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ It's been 5 months since your loved one passed away, and even though the passing of time eases the pain; it never goes away completely. We love our family members so much, and when one of them dies then the family circle is broken. One day sickness and death will be done away with forever, because God has made this promise, and he never fails to fulfill his word. Isaiah 55:10,11. The bible at 1st Corinthians 15:26 calls death our enemy, and it says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Jehovah God send us his son Jesus, who died an agonizing death in our behalf so that we would be done with sin, sickness, and death. Jesus himself promises at John 11:25, "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life." All authority has been given to him from his father to bring the dead back to life. John 5:26-29. If we are obedient to Jehovah, and follow the example Jesus set for us; we will see our loved ones come to life again.
