Carlton, Renee and Reginald extend our condolences to the Family (our family). Hilda was such a kind, warm spirited person She loved everyone that knew her and she was loved. I remember the years being at Senior Connection Cafe we all share love, help one another in doing our crafts. Hilda would always at Christmas give me a Readers Digest Christmas book that had plenty of inspirations, she was that kind of person. I always had a nickname for her ...Hilda Mae and my brother Carlton Washington would always call her cousin Hilda she would give the biggest smile. We are related to Hilda on the Washington side to the Crumps. Hilda will be missed you couldn't have asked for a better friend and that (Smile) meant a million dollars. We will continue to cherish and miss you Cousin Hilda. May God continue to Bless the Family and know you are loved in this time of Bereavement. The Washington's.

“ Family, I'm deeply sorry for the loss of someone so dear to you and others. I say others because Miss Hilda shared so much of herself even with that quiet demeanor she possessed. I found joy, laughter, peace and love being in her company. That smile and sweet voice I shall remember. I pray for peace and comfort for is all during this time of bereavement.

“ Words cannot explain how I feel losing a family member and friend. I can remember you coming to the Senior Connection Cafe never missing a day unless it was a doctor's appointment. God came quietly and took you away, but he never makes mistakes. God Bless my Family. Love you Hilda
